

Dear colleague,

I am writing to you in my capacity as Emiliana Pasca Noether Chair in Modern Italian History at UConn, in the hope that you will be able to put me in touch with students interested in continuing their research at the graduate level in Modern Italian history.

UConn offers MA's and Ph.Ds. in History, both of which come with competitive funding packages. In particular, the Emiliana Pasca Noether Chair can provide full support to graduate students specializing in Modern Italian History.

If you have any BA or MA students who are doing excellent work in this area and are considering further studies, I would love to get in touch with them.

If you send me the email addresses of students who may be interested in Italian history at UConn, I would like to contact them individually to invite them to apply. If you would rather forward this message to your students and let them follow up with me, that will certainly work too. I would love to hear from them.

My email address is sergio.luzzatto@uconn.edu

The link to my History department page is: <https://history.uconn.edu/faculty-by-name/sergio-luzzatto/>

Potential applicants are also free to contact our History Department Graduate Director, Professor Nancy Shoemaker, for any further questions about the application or program.

Thank you in advance for your kind cooperation, and best regards

Sergio Luzzatto
Professor
Emiliana Pasca Noether Chair in Modern Italian History

Storrs, November 10th, 2020

PS: Here are links to the History department's website, to the graduate programs in history, and to the graduate college application site.

<https://history.uconn.edu>

<https://history.uconn.edu/graduate-program/>